

MR. AND MRS. FRANK W. JENNINGS announce the engagement of their daughter, Lucille, to Mr. Leroy G. Dinwoodey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dinwoodey. The date for the marriage has not yet been set, and Miss Jennings is still with her aunt in San Francisco. Mr. Dinwoodey has just lately returned from Stanford.

Only ten days more remain before society goes into the retirement which comes from keeping things out of the newspapers. Very likely the gay set will have just as good times, but it might be rather displeasing to the sight of those who observe custom to let it be known that such is the case. There will, of course, be no large dances nor receptions, but the luncheons and dinners which are too small for publication will continue with all their gaiety and elaborateness of decoration. The last few days of this season will be crowded with the gay festivities incident to the time, and quite appropriate for those about to devote themselves to a season of prayer and fasting. Up till the stroke of midnight on Shrove Tuesday everything in the line of social activity will continue, but at that time the hour glass will be supposed to stand still.

The marriage of Miss Ida Noble and Mr. Lewis Cecil Robinson will take place Tuesday at noon at the home of the bride's father. The bride will be attended by her two sisters, Mrs. Robert G. Smith as matron of honor and Miss Margaret Mame Noble as maid of honor. Little Margaret Noble, the daughter of Fred W. Noble, will be the flower girl, and Mr. Will Hall will be the best man. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Father Kiely, and the young people will leave immediately after for an eastern trip of a few weeks. They will make their home later at 665 Second street.

The third Assembly will take place Tuesday evening, and preparations are under way to make it the most enjoyable so far of the series. The supper to be served in the Commercial club, and this will give an opportunity for more cozy corners—always favorite resorting places. This will be the last till after Easter, at which time it will be made to make it memorable.

The more important of the pre-Lenten events will be the large and elaborate reception given by the officers and Miss Holmes in honor of the Twelfth, the date set is the evening of Shrove Tuesday, and, judging by former events, the palaces, the prospects are that the season of frivolity will close in a whirl of gaiety and mirth.

The younger dancing set are looking forward eagerly to the occasion to be given by Miss Katherine Judge Friday night at the Ladies Literary club. As this is the first cotillion for nearly two years, it is supposed it will be an event of importance.

One of the largest events of the coming week is the opening reception of the University club to be given Thursday evening. Elaborate preparations are being made for the event, and a number of prominent society girls have been invited to assist in receiving.
